Eligible Applicants

Eligible applicants are established coalitionsⁱ, non-profit, community-based organizations and/or District agencies located in the District of Columbia that provide direct services, training, or education to support and maintain the comprehensive network of services available to victims of violent crime. Direct services are defined as those efforts that:

- respond to the emotional and physical needs of crime victims
- assist primary and secondary victims of crime to stabilize their lives after a victimization
- assist victims in understanding and participating in the criminal justice system.
- support the comprehensive network of services.

Eligible Program Activities

This RFA will only give consideration to services, training, or education provided to adult, teen and/or child victims for the following five categories of victims of crime.

ⁱ For the purpose of this RFA, established coalitions are those with an active membership that coordinate District-wide victim services to support and maintain the comprehensive network of services available to victims of violent crime in the District.
